

FIRST TO MARKET - ONE OF A KIND NEWEST FASHION ACCESSORY

Say farewell to the biggest fashion no-no... peeping bra straps!

THE PROBLEM - Have you ever bought the perfect thin-strapped dress or tank top and take it home to find you don't have the right bra to wear with it? The issue is usually peeping bra straps. If you're blessed with a fuller chested figure, you know a strapless bra isn't an option - it will just end up around your waist. A built-in bra isn't an option either unless you're going for the uni-boob look. Most other bra strap solutions that are meant to be concealed under clothing are unflattering, uncomfortable and just don't work!

THE SOLUTION - Brazzles are a small accessory that solves a big fashion problem - peeping bra straps. They're the solution to keeping bra straps from showing when wearing the typical thin-strapped tank top or dress. Worn externally, they can add a pop of color or match the outfit to be less noticeable. Now you can wear your favorite thin-strapped dress or tank top AND still have the support of a bra by adding a set of Brazzles (to the front and/or back straps) to perfectly keep the straps aligned.
